

The present continuous tense shows what actions are happening now.

Example: Hannah is meeting friends now. [Photography by Dirk Coetzee]

1. Change the verbs in brackets to the present continuous tense:

- 1.1 Kealeboga _____ (ride) on the train now.
- 1.2 We _____ (shout) loudly.
- 1.3 The trams _____ (transport) lots of passengers.
- 1.4 Everyone _____ (scream) in the tunnel at the moment.
- 1.5 We _____ (have) a lot of fun.

2. Past Continuous Tense (ongoing at a certain time in the past)

Example: The learners were copying notes when the bell rang.

2. Change the verbs in brackets to the past continuous tense:

- 2.1 The airplane _____ (leave) at seven yesterday.
- 2.2 Lots of people _____ (travel) last the night.
- 2.3 The parents _____ (take) their kids to school during the week.
- 2.4 I _____ (watch) the learners arrive at school.
- 2.5 We _____ (enjoy) the bus trip last summer holiday.

3. Future continuous tense (ongoing at a certain time in the future)

Example: Samantha will be travelling a lot.

Change the verbs in brackets to future continuous tense.

- 3.1 The farmer _____ (plough) his land on Saturday.
- 3.2 He _____ (harvesting) his crops in two month's time.
- 3.3 Everyone _____ (buying) fresh produce in town.
- 3.4 The tourists _____ (sightsee) the city centre.
- 3.5 The motorcycles _____ (speed) around the track this weekend.

The present continuous tense shows what actions are happening now.

Example: Hannah is meeting friends now. [Photography by Dirk Coetzee]

1. Change the verbs in brackets to the present continuous tense:

- 1.1 Kealeboga is riding (ride) on the train now.
- 1.2 We are shouting (shout) loudly.
- 1.3 The trams are transporting (transport) lots of passengers.
- 1.4 Everyone is screaming (scream) in the tunnel at the moment.
- 1.5 We are having (have) a lot of fun.

2. Past Continuous Tense (ongoing at a certain time in the past)

Example: The learners were copying notes when the bell rang.

2. Change the verbs in brackets to the past continuous tense:

- 2.1 The airplane was leaving (leave) at seven yesterday.
- 2.2 Lots of people were travelling (travel) last the night.
- 2.3 The parents were taking (take) their kids to school during the week.
- 2.4 I was watching (watch) the learners arrive at school.
- 2.5 We were enjoying (enjoy) the bus trip last summer holiday.

3. Future continuous tense (ongoing at a certain time in the future)

Example: Samantha will be travelling a lot.

Change the verbs in brackets to future continuous tense.

- 3.1 The farmer will be ploughing (plough) his land on Saturday.
- 3.2 He will be harvesting (harvesting) his crops in two month's time.
- 3.3 Everyone will be buying (buying) fresh produce in town.
- 3.4 The tourists will be sightseeing (sightsee) the city centre.
- 3.5 The motorcycles will be speeding (speed) around the track this weekend.