

1. Rewrite the sentences in the negative form.

Use each negation word in the table only once.

none	never	don't	couldn't	nobody
nowhere	nothing	wasn't	no way	no one

1.1 Someone at the camp helped us with information.

1.2 Somebody left the gate open.

1.3 You can do something about it if people misbehave in the park.

1.4 I have seen one animal since this morning.

1.5 My wallet was somewhere in the lapa.

1.6 Feed the animals of the wildlife park.

1.7 I could find my way without a GPS.

1.8 There is a way you will survive without water in nature.

1.9 Some of us accepted the ride-along invitation.

1.10 Was it ever my intention to pay for everyone? No, ...

2. Add prefixes to the bold printed words to change the positive statements to negatives.

2.1 It was necessary to pay for all of us.

2.2 Do not obey the park rules.

2.3 The driver made a take and made a U-turn in the road.

2.4 The socks she wore were a match.

2.5 The map directions were accurate.

2.6 One should not be loyal to one's country.

2.7 It was possible to see any animal through the thick undergrowth.

[Image credit: Dirk Coetzee and Ms Designer]

1. Rewrite the sentences in the negative form.

Use each negation word in the table only once.

none	never	don't	couldn't	nobody
nowhere	nothing	haven't	no way	no one

1.11 No one at the camp helped us with information.

1.12 Nobody left the gate open.

1.13 You can do nothing about it if people misbehave in the park.

1.14 I haven't seen one animal since this morning.

1.15 My wallet was nowhere in the lapa.

1.16 Don't feed the animals of the wildlife park.

1.17 I couldn't find my way without a GPS.

1.18 There is no way you will survive without water in nature.

1.19 None of us accepted the ride-along invitation.

1.20 No, it was never my intention to pay for everyone.

2. Add prefixes to the bold printed words to change the positive statements to negatives.

2.1 It was unnecessary to pay for all of us.

2.2 Do not disobey the park rules.

2.3 The driver made a mistake and made a U-turn in the road.

2.4 The socks she wore were a mismatch.

2.5 The map directions were inaccurate.

2.6 One should not be disloyal to one's country.

2.7 It was impossible to see any animal through the thick undergrowth.

[Image credit: Dirk Coetzee and Ms Designer]